

Ontario Homicide Investigator's Association

2010 AWARD NOMINATIONS

Investigator Awards to be Presented at the 2010 OHIA Conference:

May 3 – May 7, 2010
Niagara Falls, Ontario

Lynda Shaw Award

Presented for vigilance and dedication demonstrated in Historic (cold case) Homicide investigations.

Mike Matthews Award

Presented to the Homicide investigator who has displayed the courage, tenacity and compassion that are the hallmarks of Mike Matthews' legacy.

Major Case Management Award

Presented to the individual, team or service that has exhibited outstanding innovation and achievement in case management in a homicide investigation.

Award of Merit

Presented to persons that throughout the Province of Ontario have made a significant contribution to homicide investigations or to OHIA (formally GHIA) homicide training and education.

All award nominations and inquiries should be directed to the Chair of the OHIA Awards Committee, Detective Sergeant Kevin Britton, (905) 825-4777 ext 4856, or by email to Kevin.britton@haltonpolice.ca Submission Deadline: February 19, 2010.

Nominations should include an overview of the investigation and resulting prosecution, an explanation of why the person(s) or service should be considered, a list of names of involved officers and contact information of the person making the nomination.

Nominations for an Award of Merit should include an overview of the person's career, contributions,

MAJOR CASE MANAGEMENT AWARD 2009 OHIA Conference

Detective Inspector Steve Rooke, Director of Major Case Management (right) presents the 2009 MCM award to Detective Martin Ottaway of the Peel Regional Police Service