

Ontario Homicide Investigator's Association

2013 AWARD NOMINATIONS

Investigator Awards to be Presented at the 2013 OHIA Conference in Niagara Falls:

Lynda Shaw Award

Presented for vigilance and dedication demonstrated in Historic (cold case) Homicide investigations.

Mike Matthews Award

Presented to the Homicide investigator who has displayed the courage, tenacity and compassion that are the hallmarks of Mike Matthews' legacy.

Major Case Management Award

Presented to the individual, team or service that has exhibited outstanding innovation and achievement in case management in a homicide investigation.

Award of Merit

Presented to persons that throughout the Province of Ontario have made a significant contribution to homicide investigations or to OHIA (formally GHIA) homicide training and education.

All award nominations and inquiries should be directed to the Chair of the OHIA Awards Committee, Detective Sergeant JJ Allan, (905) 579-1520 (5400), or by email to JALLAN@drps.ca Submission Deadline: February, 2013.

Nominations should include an overview of the investigation and resulting prosecution, an explanation of why the person(s) or service should be considered, a list of names of involved officers, contact information of the person making the nomination and the supporting Unit Commander.

Nominations for an Award of Merit should include an overview of the person's career; contributions.

LYNDA SHAW AWARD 2012 OHIA Conference

Supt. Dave Truax Ontario Provincial Police (left) presents the 2012 Lynda Shaw award to OPP Detective Sergeant Jim Gorry and Durham RPS Detective Theresa Ceranowicz for their contributions to Project OUTFIT.